Revised Ordinance No. 93.01: Navajo County Animal Control Ordinance, revised May 17, 1997, with Fee Schedule, approved July 7, 1997.

Navajo County Animal Control Ordinance #93.01 01-93
Revised 5-19-97

WHEREAS, the Arizona legislature has adopted Article Six of Chapter Seven, Title Eleven, Arizona Revised Statutes, concerning animal control; and

WHEREAS, A.R.S. §11-1018(B) authorizes counties to adopt animal control ordinances more stringent than the state statutes; and

WHEREAS, the safety, health, and welfare of the citizens of the unincorporated areas of Navajo County will be promoted by an ordinance regulating the running at large of dogs, as well as annoying or harassing behavior by dogs and other animals, pursuant to authority granted the County by the state statutes; and

WHEREAS, the law authorizes the Board of Supervisors of Navajo County to fix fees and costs for animal control enforcement,

NOW, THEREFORE, the Board of Supervisors of Navajo County does ordain:

SECTION ONE

All provisions of Article Six of Chapter Seven, Title Eleven, Arizona Revised Statutes, as the same presently exist or may be subsequently amended or renumbered, are hereby adopted and incorporated into this ordinance by reference.

SECTION TWO: DOGS AT LARGE

It shall be unlawful for any person having ownership, possession or control of a dog to allow the dog to run at large within the unincorporated areas of Navajo County except as otherwise authorized in this ordinance.

As defined by A.R.S. §11-1001(2), "at large" means being neither confined by an enclosure nor physically restrained by a leash.

For purposes of this ordinance, "physically restrained by a leash" shall mean restrained by a leash not to exceed six feet in length which is of adequate strength and material so as not to allow the escape of the dog from the control of its owner or controller.

The requirements of this section shall not be construed as changing, decreasing or abrogating the duty to observe the standard of care owed by any owner, controller or other person to appropriately restrain a dog so as to avoid injury to persons or property.

Any dog running at large shall be impounded by the County control agency. The Navajo County Sheriff's Office shall be the control agency unless the Board of Supervisors at any time designates otherwise by ordinance or resolution.

This section shall not apply to dogs in the following situations: Dogs while being used for control of livestock, while being used or trained for hunting, while being exhibited or trained at a kennel club event, or while being used by a government agency for police or military work which falls within A.R.S. §11-1025(B)(1)-(4). All exceptions to this section shall be conditioned on compliance with all other applicable laws, including any licensing or vaccination requirements.

SECTION THREE: BARKING DOGS

It shall be unlawful for any person having ownership, possession or control of a dog to allow the dog to engage in unrestrained or excessive barking within the unincorporated areas of Navajo County in such manner so as to unreasonably disturb the peace of any person.

SECTION FOUR: PUBLIC NUISANCE

Any animal which:

- 1) Annoys or harasses passers-by or passing vehicles,
- 2) Attacks other animals,
- 3) Trespasses on school grounds,
- 4) Is repeatedly at large,
- 5) Damages public or private property,
- 6) Barks, whines, or howls in an excessive, continuous or untimely fashion,
- 7) Repeatedly causes garbage to be thrown about, or
- 8) Is a "vicious animal" as defined in A.R.S. §11-1001(16), is declared to be a "Public Nuisance" and shall be impounded at a cost to be borne by the person having ownership, possession or control.

SECTION FIVE: FEES

The Board of Supervisors shall establish a schedule of fees for licensing, impounding, reclaiming, and such other animal control activities as may be authorized by state law. Any agency designated by the Board of Supervisors to enforce or administer this ordinance may make recommendations to the Board as to the appropriate fee and any other matter to carry out this ordinance and state law. To the extent permitted by law, the Board of Supervisors may authorize the County control agency or the Board's designated agency to carry out the duties authorized by state law and this ordinance.

SECTION SIX: CRIMINAL PENALTIES

Any person violating any provision of Sections Two or Three hereof shall, for each such violation, be guilty of a class 2 misdemeanor. Each day a violation continues shall be deemed a separate offense.

SECTION SEVEN: REPEALER

All ordinances or parts of ordinances inconsistent with this ordinance are hereby repealed.

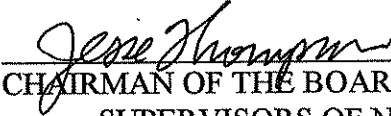

SECTION EIGHT: SEVERABILITY

If any section or paragraph of this ordinance is found unconstitutional or preempted by federal or state law, it shall not affect the remaining sections and paragraphs but shall be stricken and the remaining provisions of this ordinance shall be given effect.

SECTION NINE: EFFECTIVE DATE

This ordinance shall take effect and be enforced from and after its passage and publication according to law.

NAVAJO COUNTY ANIMAL CONTROL ORDINANCE

WHEREAS, the Arizona legislature has adopted Article Six of Chapter Seven, Title Eleven Arizona Revised Statutes; and

WHEREAS, the safety, health, and welfare of the citizens of the unincorporated portions of Navajo County will be promoted by an ordinance regulating the running at large of dogs pursuant to authority granted the County in Article Six; and

WHEREAS the law requires the Board of Supervisors of Navajo County to fix fees and costs; WHEREFORE, the Board of Supervisors of Navajo County, State of Arizona, does ordain:

SECTION ONE

All provisions of Article Six of Chapter Seven Title Eleven, Arizona Revised Statutes as it presently exists or may be subsequently amended or renumbered is hereby adopted and incorporated into this ordinance by reference.

SECTION TWO

No dog shall be allowed to run at large within the unincorporated areas of Navajo County except as otherwise authorized in this ordinance.

As defined by A.R.S. § 11-1001(2) "at large" means being neither confined by an enclosure or physically restrained by a leash.

For purposes of this ordinance, "physically restrained by a leash" shall mean confined by a leash of, at most, six feet which is of adequate strength and material so as not to allow the escape of the dog from control of its owner or controller. The requirements of this section shall not be construed as changing, decreasing or abrogating the duty to observe the standard of care owed by any owner, controller or plaintiff to appropriately restrain a dog to avoid injury to person or property.

This section shall not apply to dogs in the following situations: Dogs while being used for control of livestock; Dogs while being used or trained for hunting; Dogs while being exhibited or trained at a kennel club event; Dogs while actually being used by a governmental agency for police or military work pursuant to an adopted written policy on the necessity and appropriate use of a dog for military or police work which falls within A.R.S. § 11-1025(B)(1) -(B)(4). All exceptions to this section shall be conditioned on compliance with all other applicable law including any licensing or vaccination requirements.

SECTION THREE

Any dog running at large shall be impounded by the County Control Agency. Unless the Board of Supervisors at any time designates by ordinance or resolution otherwise, the Navajo County Sheriffs Department shall be the control agency of the County.

SECTION FOUR

The Board of Supervisors shall set fees for license, impounding, reclaiming, and other fees pursuant to State law. Any agency designated by the Board to enforce or administer this ordinance may make recommendations to the Board as to the appropriate fee and any other matter to carry out this ordinance and State law. To the extent permitted by law, the Board may authorize the county control agency or the Board's designated agency to carry out the duties authorized by State law and this ordinance.

SECTION FIVE

Any person violating any of the provisions of this ordinance shall, for each such offense, be guilty of a class 2 misdemeanor. Each day an individual violates this ordinance shall be considered a separate and continuing offense.

SECTION SIX REPEALER

All ordinances or parts of ordinances inconsistent with this ordinance are repealed.

SECTION SEVEN
SEVERABILITY

If any section or paragraph of this ordinance is found unconstitutional or preempted by and federal or Arizona State law, it shall not affect the remaining sections and paragraphs but shall be stricken and the remaining provisions of this ordinance shall be given effect.

SECTION EIGHT
EFFECTIVE DATE

This ordinance shall take effect and be enforced from and after its passage and publication according to law.
